The EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE LOST AND FOUND.

Jackson Democratic Association met last even me at the office of their president, James L. Nortes, eact, to take action with relation to the death of Col. Barnett I. Swart.

The moeting was attended by nearly the entire executive committee, including many of the older and most proprihent members of the association.

The chairman of the executive committee, George E. Kirk, e.g., designated the following sentlemen as a committee to prepare suitable resolutions. Hon H. O.

E. Kirk, e.g., designated the following sentlements a committee to prepare suitable resolutions: flom. H. O. Claughton, henry E. Davis, George E. Kirk, Robert E. L. White and James W. Berker.

The committee submitted the following:

The Jackson Democratic Association, having learned with profound regret of the death of its late member, Col. Barnett f. Swart, who was its honored president from 18.88 to 1882.

Resolves, that in the death of Col. Swart the association recognizes the loss to itself of a loyal and valued associate, to the democracy of the District of Columbia of a faithful and unfallering adherent, and to his family of a devoted and worthly beloved member.

That by his death the community in which he so long and unrantly lived has been deprived of a respected citizen, a lover of his kind without regard to class, a hater of the lake incivil life, and a steadlast friend and earnest promoter of good government.

That as a mark of respect to his memory the association will attend his tuneral in a body and

To INQUIRE INTO THE NAVAJO TROUBLE .- A telegram was received at the War Department this morning from Gen. McCook at Los Angeles, Cal., in which he says that the sheriff at Flagstaff, Ariz., apprehends an outbreak of the powerfu Navajo Indians as a result of the arrest of their chief. The United States marshal, however, reports to Gen. McCook that there is no danger of an uprising, and to settle the doubt raised by the complicated state-ments the general has sent an officer to the reservation to ascertain and report the facts.
